MIDLAND HOTEL

A stylish setting

The Midland offers a stylish setting for your meeting. A lovingly restored Art Deco classic with views sweeping across Morecambe Bay to the Lake District, The Midland is an impressive venue, with top notch technology, fabulous food and slick service.

Your meeting at The Midland will be special, memorable... even magical! And this should help to make it successful.

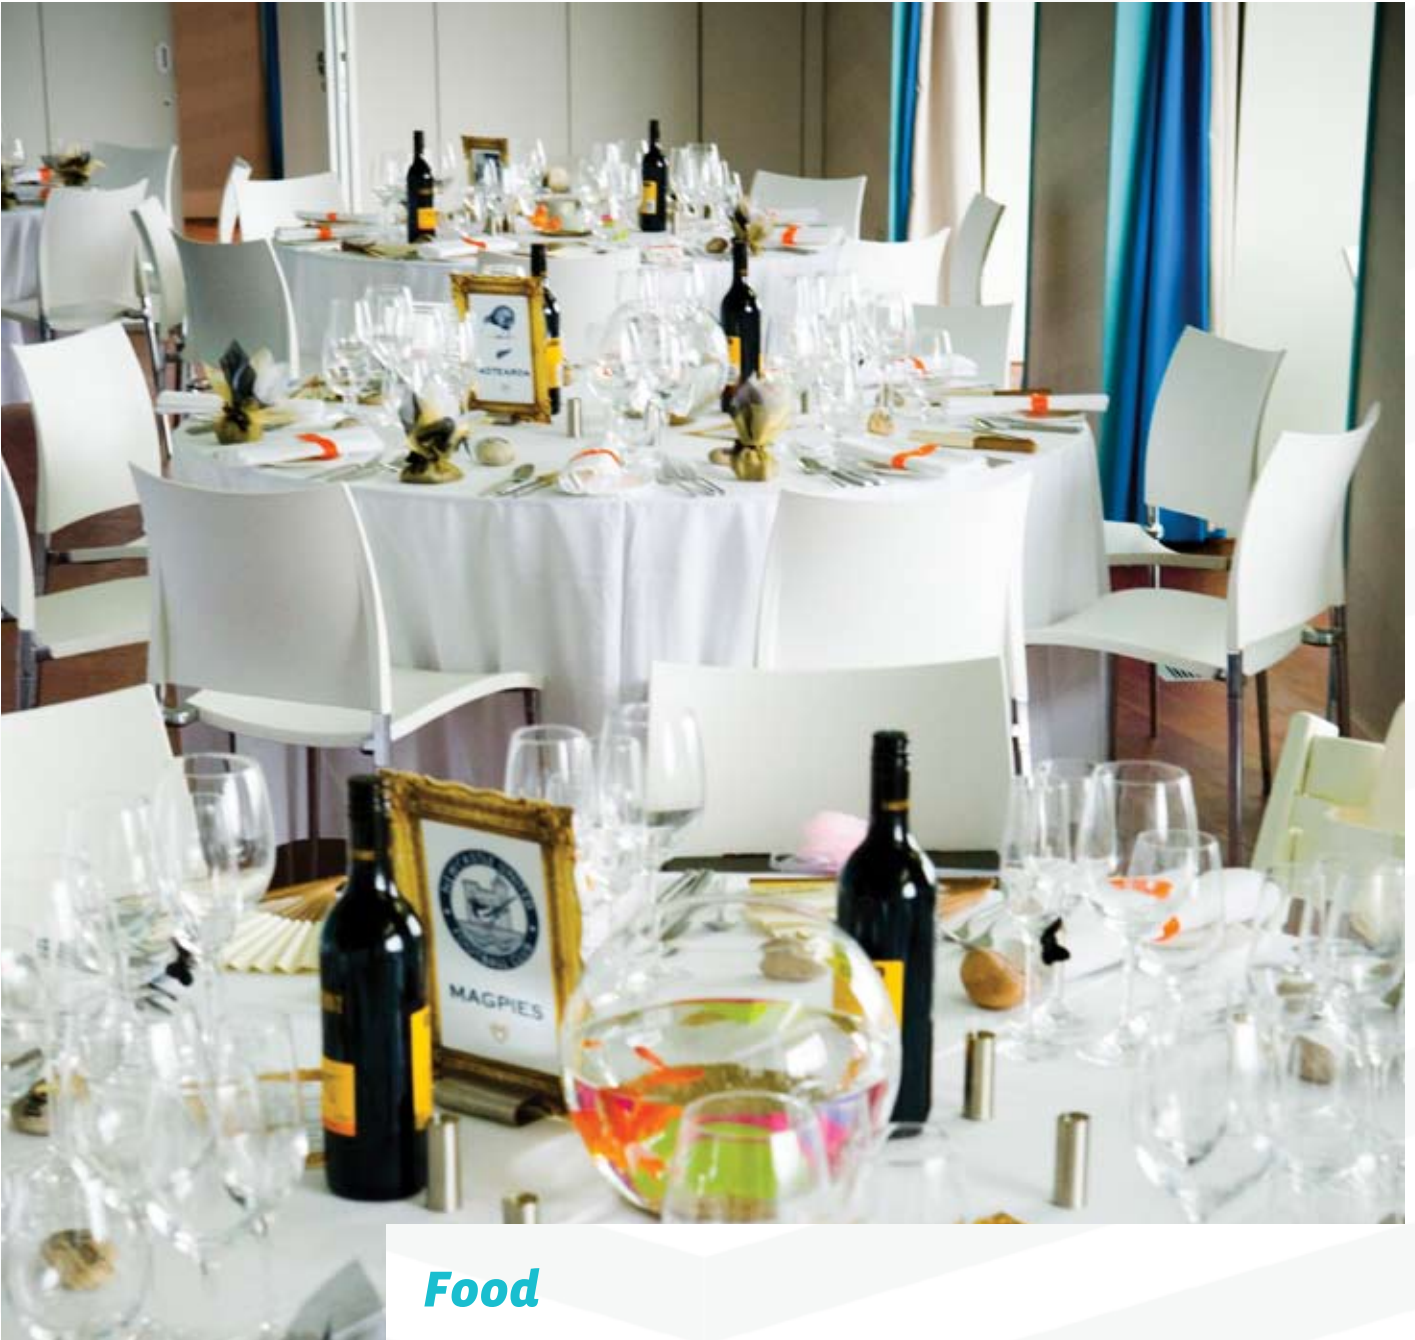

Flexibility

Our contemporary, flexible function space has been designed to adapt to your needs. From intimate meetings, roundtable discussions and small conferences, to private dinners or networking drinks, whatever the scale of your event we can design the space around you. And of course you can stay the night if you need a bit longer to get things done.

Style

An event at The Midland will be unique and memorable. The building itself is a beautiful example of Art Deco architecture, our interiors are subtle and stylish, and we have sophisticated lighting systems and state-of-the-art technological equipment. Combined with the glorious setting, this gives you a fresh place to meet, think and be inspired.

Food

Our team of chefs use top quality ingredients from local suppliers to rustle up tasty pastries, delectable buffets and formal lunches and dinners for your event. Freshly ground coffee will be served whenever you need a pick-me-up, and you can relax in the Rotunda bar and the sun lounge when you need a break.

Our team

Our events team will guide you through every step of organising your event and will be on hand on the day to help with any specific requirements, so you can concentrate on the business at hand. To discuss your requirements please give us a call.

Midland spaces

Eric Gill

This stunning room is the largest of our function spaces and boasts panoramic views of the Bay. Spanning the length of the Eric Gill is an enclosed sun terrace providing the ideal space to stretch legs and have a coffee. The room also has access to a private bar and toilet facilities. Named after Eric Gill, the arts and crafts artist behind so much of the hotel's original décor.

Oliver Hill

Situated on the ground floor at the southern end of the hotel, the Oliver Hill room is ideal for conferences and receptions or as an extension to the Eric Gill once the partition is drawn. Also has access to the private bar and toilet facilities (shared with Eric Gill). Named after the 1930s architect who designed the original building.

Marian Dorn

This room is ideal for smaller meetings. Located just off the lobby area, with views over Morecambe Bay and the promenade, it has everything you need to inform and inspire your delegates. In dedication of the artist, Marian Dorn, responsible for the original mosaic tile flooring which is now beautifully restored on the ground floor.

Suite 314

Situated on the third floor with spectacular views overlooking Morecambe and the surrounding countryside, this suite is ideal for truly wowing your guests. The suite opens out onto a large roof terrace, great for providing that exclusive breakout area in the warmer months. Keep the motivation going with a working buffet lunch served by your dedicated member of staff.
