

Spectacular Storrs Hall Hotel, a Grade II Georgian mansion, offers a most idyllic setting for people who enjoy life's luxuries. Sitting in an unrivalled position, with the most enviable views of Lake Windermere. Its sumptuous interiors are decorated in the old English style creating an air of established comfort, elegant but informal, warm and welcoming.

The Counties Meet room provides a quiet location for small exclusive conferences or meetings. The John Bolton room also provides a perfect dining area as well as meeting space. The Study is an extra option for breakout meetings and both have breathtaking views of the hotel grounds and lake.
