

Route 6

Low Wood Bay to The Wild Boar Inn

Description: On a clear day with good views, there is nowhere in England that could compare with this walk. With lush grass and well-defined stony tracks under your feet, there is just an over-powering sense of being in harmony with nature. Halfway along the walk is 'Orrest Head' ; a significant outcrop where the fabulous panorama from the top takes in virtually the whole of the South Lakes mountain range. Continue through splendid countryside and the journey finally ends with a warm welcome at The Wild Boar Inn.

Distance: 8 miles (12.8 km)

Time required: 5 – 5 ½ hours.

Start from: Low Wood Bay near Ambleside.

Safety: Most of the paths will be rough, stony or muddy, therefore, stout boots with a good grip on the soles are absolutely essential. Waterproof clothing is recommended for your own comfort along with energy-giving food and drinks.

1. With Low Wood Bay reception entrance behind you, face the lake and turn right. Walk along the road for 30 yards, and then turn right again. Ascend the driveway for 100 yards, to locate a swing-gate/large gate just to the right of the large car park. Follow a grassy track for 30 yards, then turn left at the end of the wire fencing. Ascend alongside the left-hand wall for 200 yards and in the next corner of this field, pass through a swing-gate/large gate. —Continue uphill (parallel to the left-hand wall) to pass through a swing-gate seen 175 yards away. Now bear right and after 150 yards, cross over a stile/gate. Turn right and follow the right-hand wall for 50 yards and cross over another stile/gate. Turn sharp left and ascend alongside the left-hand wall for 65 yards, then bear right and continue up the double-rutted track for approximately 300 yards, to pass through a large gate. 150 yards further on, join onto a hard-surfaced farm track. Turn right signposted [Public Bridleway. Troutbeck] and follow this track for 300 yards, to pass by the farmstead of Low Skelghyll.

2. Continue downhill and after  $\frac{2}{3}$  mile, this hard-surfaced track will terminate at a lane. Turn left and after 250 yards, pass by a farm on your right. Continue along the lane and after  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, pass by a wide track on your right. Proceed for a maximum of 150 yards, then bear right onto a narrow, stony track [Public Bridleway]. Descend for 200 yards and pass through a large gate. Proceed between the cottage buildings, to reach a tarmaced lane. Go straight across [Public Bridleway] and descend a stony track for 250 yards, to cross over the Trout Beck. Within 25 yards, pass through a gate to enter a field. Ascend the slope, and in the top right-hand corner, join onto the Ullswater/Bowness road.

3. Turn right, but within 75 yards, turn left (across the road) to link up with a lane. Ascend for  $\frac{1}{3}$  mile, (facing the oncoming traffic) to pass by a lane on your right. 150 yards further up, pass by a farm-track on your left. After another 150 yards, pass by a broad, tarmaced track on your left. Continue along the lane for a further  $\frac{1}{3}$  mile, to locate a gate & stile on your right, signposted [Public Footpath]. Climb over the stile and observe the direction of the finger-post. Walk straight across the field, to climb over a ladder-stile. Now bear left towards a gate seen 75 yards away. In the next field, go straight ahead to climb over a ladder-stile in a corner wall. In this last field, bear right and walk for 250 yards, to cross over a small beck via a flat footbridge. 40 yards further on, climb over a stone stile in the wall, to link up with a lane.

4. Turn right and proceed along the lane for a maximum of 350 yards, then turn left across a stone stile, (next to a gate). Follow the right-hand wall for 75 yards and cross over a beck. Continue alongside the wall for a further 75 yards, then go straight ahead and ascend the steep path for  $\frac{1}{3}$  mile, (parallel to the wall on your right) to climb over a stone stile in the top right-hand corner wall. 50 yards further up, the path forks go straight ahead to reach the summit of Orrest Head.

5. With Lake Windermere on your right, descend a broad, grassy path for 100 yards, to approach a stone wall. Turn left and walk (alongside the wall) for 250 yards, to cross over a stone stile. Turn right and immediately pass through a swing-gate. Follow the wooded path for 250 yards, to reach a 3-way junction. Turn left [Common Lane] and after  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile of descent, the path leads to a gate on the edge of a field. Cross over the field and join onto a lane. Turn right, to arrive at the main Kendal/Windermere road. Cross over the road (with care) and turn right. Ascend for 100 yards, then turn left through a gate [Public right of way]. Follow the cart track for 300 yards, to reach a Y-junction.

6. Bear right and within 40 yards, enter the next field. Continue along the cart track for 200 yards, and then turn left through a tall swing-gate. Walk alongside the right-hand wall for 100 yards, then curve right, to aim for a large swing-gate. Go straight across the railway line (with care), to link up with a narrow footpath. Walk alongside the left-hand fence for 50 yards, then turn left and descend to a tarmaced track. Turn right and after 100 yards, (just prior to a stone bridge), bear left onto a stony track [School Knott]. Proceed for 100 yards, and then cross over a residential road, to link up with a tarmaced track. Follow this [gated single-track road] for  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, to pass by a cottage on your left. Pass by a barn, (behind this cottage) then proceed for a maximum of 125 yards, to reach a sharp right-hand bend. Stop!

7. Go straight ahead and pass through a large gate [waymarker], to enter rough pastureland. Follow the stony track, to aim for a gate seen 150 yards away. Continue straight ahead and after 350 yards, the track forks. Bear left [Dales Way] and ascend the rocky path for  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, to pass through another gate. Proceed for only 60 yards, and then turn right through a gate, to enter the adjacent field. DO NOT follow the farm track straight ahead! Instead, turn left (alongside the left-hand wall) for 75 yards, then bear right and follow a grassy path uphill for 250 yards, to pass by a [waymarker]. 25 yards further on, cross over a derelict wall. Go straight ahead for 100 yards, then curve left for a further 150 yards, to go through a gate in a stone wall. Continue along the well-defined path and after  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, arrive at the farm of Hag End. Pass between the farm buildings and exit via a large gate. Follow a stony track for 150 yards and join onto a tarmaced lane.

8. Turn right and after 150 yards, pass through a gate by the side of a house. Within 15 yards, pass by another gate on your left. Proceed for a maximum of 30 yards, then bear left through a swing-gate [Dales Way]. Walk parallel to the left-hand wall and after 300 yards; pass through a gate in a corner wall. Walk for a maximum of 75 yards, and then turn left. With a wall on your left and the farmstead of Crag House on your right, descend for 100 yards, to arrive at 3 gates. Go through the right-hand gate and descend a stony track for 200 yards, then curve right. Go straight ahead for 150 yards, then curve left, and the path leads to a gate in a wall with a beck on the opposite side. Cross over the stepping stones and follow a winding path between the gorse bushes for  $\frac{1}{4}$  mile, to pass through a gate. Continue straight ahead, and (passing through several more gates) this track will eventually terminate at the Kendal/Bowness road. Turn right and walk along the road (with care) for 150 yards, to arrive at The Wild Boar Inn.
